MEET THE PRESS WEEKEND LISTINGS

(SUNDAY 10/05) Exclusive! With only 30 Days until the Election, two top strategists weigh in on what each side needs to do to win the White House: Democrat Paul Begala and Republican Mike Murphy on the state of the race and the strategies in play. Then, the Biden-Palin debate as well as Tuesday's upcoming Obama-McCain townhall moderated by Tom Brokaw: Insights & Analysis from David Gregory, Gwen Ifill, Peggy Noonan, Chuck Todd and David Yepsen. Did Biden and Palin serve their tickets well at last night's debate? What states are now in play? And what must Barack Obama and John McCain do at the remaining two debates to put their ticket on top?

(SUNDAY 10/12) Exclusive! An in-depth discussion about the financial crisis with Gov. Jon Corzine (D-NJ) and former congressman Rob Portman (R-OH). Both men bring political and economic experience to the table: Corzine as former chairman and chief executive officer of Goldman Sachs and Portman with his two positions in George W. Bush's cabinet: U.S. Trade Representative and Director of Office of Management and Budget. They will join Tom Brokaw in studio to answer the questions on every voter's mind: how did we get into this crisis -- and how do we get out? Then, we will have insights & analysis on the economy and Decision 2008 with CNBC's Erin Burnett, the Wall Street Journal's Paul Gigot and Ted Koppel of the Discovery Channel.

(SUNDAY 10/19) Exclusive! Former Secretary of State Gen. Colin Powell (Ret.) -- who has been courted by both Barack Obama and John McCain -- will break his recent silence and share his views on a variety of important issues facing the country. Then, with a little over two weeks to the election, we will look at the 2008 battleground and several new state polls with NBC's political director Chuck Todd. Plus, insights and analysis on Decision 2008 with David Brooks of the New York Times, Jon Meacham of Newsweek magazine, Andrea Mitchell of NBC News, and Joe Scarborough of MSNBC's "Morning Joe."

(SUNDAY 10/26) Just nine days before the election, Republican presidential nominee Sen. John McCain (R-AZ) will be Tom Brokaw's exclusive guest this Sunday as "Meet the Press" originates live from Waterloo, Iowa. Plus, a Decision 2008 roundtable with political analyst Charlie Cook, NBC's Kelly O'Donnell and NBC's political director Chuck Todd. We will have the latest polls and insights on the battleground map as Election Day approaches.

(SUNDAY 11/02) Just two days before the historic 2008 election season comes to a close, Tom Brokaw sits down exclusively with two political heavyweights: Obama supporter & 2004 Democratic Presidential Nominee Sen. John Kerry (D-MA), and McCain supporter and former Senator Fred Thompson (R-TN). What are the Obama and McCain campaigns' closing arguments to voters? Then, our political roundtable looks at the final polls, battleground states and campaign strategies with David Broder of the Washington Post, David Gregory of NBC News, Michele Norris of NPR, and Chuck Todd, Political Director of NBC News.

(SUNDAY 11/9) Exclusive! A look ahead at the Obama presidency with long-time Obama friend and the newly appointed Co-Chair of his transition team, Valerie Jarrett. Plus, Sen. Mel Martinez (R-FL) and Rep. James Clyburn (D-SC) join us in studio to discuss governing in the new administration. What issues will top the agenda? And what will be the future direction of the Democratic and Republican Parties? Then, insights and analysis from our political roundtable on the historic election, the Obama agenda and many challenges facing the country with presidential historian Doris Kearns Goodwin, Newsweek's Jon Meacham and Mary Mitchell of the Chicago Sun-Times.

(SUNDAY 11/16) Exclusive! Pressure on the Government to bailout the U.S. auto industry, but the plan faces tough Republican opposition on Capitol Hill. Both sides square off Sunday: Sen. Carl Levin (D-MI), Co-Chair of the Senate Auto Caucus versus Sen. Richard Shelby (R-AL), Ranking Member of the Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs Committee. Then, Founder and Chairman of BP Capital Management, and author of the Pickens Plan, T. Boone Pickens, will share his thoughts on how our nation's energy dependence effects both our environment and our economy. Plus, our roundtable will have insights and analysis on the economic crisis, the auto industry, the Obama transition, and Hillary Clinton's possible role in the Obama administration. We'll be joined by New York Times Columnist Tom Friedman; Washington Correspondent for BBC World News America, Katty Kay, NBC News Correspondent Andrea Mitchell; and Host of PBS's Tavis Smiley and PRI's The Tavis Smiley Show, Tavis Smiley.

(SUNDAY 11/23) Exclusive! Insights from two political heavyweights: a man who served President Reagan as Secretary of the Treasury and President George H.W. Bush as Secretary of State, James Baker, and an Adviser to Obama's Transition team and former Secretary of Commerce for President Bill Clinton, William Daley, will join us to talk about the Obama transition and the on-going economic troubles on Wall Street and Main Street. Then, an exclusive interview with the 2000 Democratic Vice Presidential nominee turned 2008 McCain supporter, Senator Joseph Lieberman (I-CT). Now that the Democrats have allowed him to keep his Committee chairmanship, does he have any regrets about his campaign rhetoric against Obama? Plus, prospects for an auto bailout from Congress are fading. Our roundtable weighs in on the future of Detroit's Big Three and the very latest on the President-elect's cabinet picks with CNBC's Erin Burnett; Author and former Detroit Bureau Chief for the Wall Street Journal, Paul Ingrassia; the Washington Post's Eugene Robinson; and NBC's Political Director Chuck Todd.

(SUNDAY 11/30) Exclusive! First Lady Laura Bush -- joined by Afghanistan's Ambassador to the U.S., Said Jawad -- discusses a subject very dear to her heart: the lives of women in Afghanistan. She will also share her thoughts on life after the White House and her advice to the incoming First Lady, Michelle Obama. Then, he's a champion sailor, cable innovator and philanthropist. Now Ted Turner is adding author to his list of accomplishments. He has written a new book about his life and will share his views on many issues ranging from the economy, the auto industry and even Jane Fonda. Plus, a special Thanksgiving Sunday "Meet the Press Minute". On October 20, 1957, another First Lady with a strong interest in the global community -- Eleanor Roosevelt -- appeared on "Meet the Press" to talk about her 3 hour meeting with communist leader Nikita Khrushchev of the Soviet Union.

(SUNDAY 12/07) Exclusive! In his first Sunday morning television interview since winning the election, President-Elect Barack Obama goes one-on-one with Tom Brokaw about his plans for the country and his new administration.

(SUNDAY 12/14) This week marks the debut of "Meet the Press with David Gregory!" We'll begin with the very latest on the corruption scandal involving Illinois Governor Rod Blagojevich. We'll talk to the state Attorney General, Lisa Madigan, who is asking the courts to declare the governor unfit to serve. And to the man who would replace him, Lieutenant Governor Paul Quinn. Then, lingering questions for President-elect Obama. Did anyone in his inner circle have contact with Governor Blagojevich about the open Senate seat? And will the stain of political corruption in his home-state taint the new administration? All that, plus insights and analysis on the Obama transition and results from our new NBC Poll with: Mary Mitchell of the Chicago Sun-Times and Chuck Todd of NBC News. Then, the U.S. economy continues to weaken, while jobless claims hit a 26-year high, consumer anxiety is deepening, and the auto bailout stalls in the Senate. What's next on the financial front? We'll be joined by two key political players -- Gov. Jennifer Granholm (D-MI) and Fmr. Gov. Mitt Romney (R-MA) -- and three top business voices -- Former Hewlett-Packard CEO Carly Fiorina, Wal-Mart President & CEO Lee Scott, and Google CEO Eric Schmidt. A special in-depth discussion on solutions for the economy you won't want to miss.

(SUNDAY 12/21) Exclusive! As she prepares to leave her post as Secretary of State, Condoleezza Rice joins us for an exclusive interview to reflect on her time in office and a look ahead at the challenges around the world that await her successor, Hillary Clinton. Plus, auto-makers finally get some help from the White House. Can this cash infusion save the Big Three? President-elect Obama announces more key cabinet picks and prepares to share further information on internal contacts with Gov. Blagojevich next week. And will Caroline Kennedy be the next Senator from New York? Insights and analysis from our political roundtable: CNBC's Erin Burnett, NBC's Andrea Mitchell, NPR's Michele Norris & the Chicago Sun-Times' Carol Marin.

(SUNDAY 12/28) President-elect Obama's chief campaign strategist and senior adviser David Axelrod joins us to discuss the presidential transition, solutions to the nation's economic troubles and remaining questions about the Illinois Gov. Blagojevich corruption scandal. Plus, a political roundtable on the economy, President-elect Obama, and the Bush legacy: National Review's Rich Lowry, Vanity Fair's Todd Purdum, Washington Post's Michelle Singletary & Newsweek's Richard Wolffe.

DATELINE NBC

FRIDAY, DEC. 5 - When Amanda Knox, the American language student from Seattle, went abroad to Perugia in the fall of 2007 no one from home ever imagined the seemingly sweet and innocent girl would end up being a main suspect in the unimaginable murder of her English roommate, Meredith Kercher. Mystery swirls around this horrific tale of drugs and group sex, and as Knox's impending trial continues to make international headlines, "Dateline's" Dennis Murphy and ex-FBI profiler and NBC analyst Clint Van Zandt try to untangle the conflicting stories and interpret the crime-scene evidence. In addition, the report will feature entries from Knox's prison diary and a rarely heard audiotape that's just surfacing of Knox pleading her innocence.

FRIDAY, DEC. 12 - Dennis Murphy reports on the disappearance of 3-year-old, Caylee Anthony. With her mother Casey's impending trial and the family's efforts to find her still making national headlines, the grandparents, Cindy and George Anthony, speak out to "Dateline" for an in-depth report. The hour-long broadcast includes insights from people involved in the case, rarely heard police recordings and chilling messages obtained from Casey Anthony's home computer.

FRIDAY, DEC. 19 - Ann Curry sits down for an in-depth interview with one of the most influential American pastors since Billy Graham -- Rick Warren. The best-selling author and popular evangelical minister talks about his views on President-Elect Barack Obama, his support of California's Proposition 8 and his new book, "The Purpose of Christmas." In addition, Warren discusses a recent life and death family crisis he went through for the first time publicly.

From Miami to Las Vegas to Detroit – "Dateline's" cameras take viewers to the frontlines of America's housing crisis and capture the people behind the statistics. Chris Hansen reports on the emotional stories of the families on the brink of losing their homes and the men with the unenviable jobs of forcing them out.

What seemed like an open and shut case becomes a murder investigation after a distraught widow's suspicious behavior forces detectives to dig deeper. Keith Morrison reports.
